A malcontent cat is a dangerous being, and attention-hungry Doodle Cat is verging on desperation before he encounters a stray crayon. After a few failed tests—is it a kind of spoon? A spade?—Doodle Cat discovers the crayon's purpose: to free his imagination. Thereafter, the book's pages burst with colorful creatures, wild lines, and new adventures. Doodle Cat's audience will be itching to unleash their own inner artists by the end of his suddenly exhausting day.
