The people of Firelight Bay have summer all year, but they have never experienced the wonder of rain. Armed with a cloud in a jar, a coat stuffed with knickknacks, and a lot of ingenuity, two young explorers set out to fix that in this fantastical tale. The deep blues and purples of night give way to dawn's frosted pink as Lou Dozens and her best friend encounter gale-force winds, a beached whale, and a furious flock of razorbills on their magical expedition.
