

A Shelter for Sadness

Anne Booth

David Litchfield, Illustrator

Peachtree Publishing Company (Sep 1, 2021)

Hardcover $17.99 (40pp)

978-1-68263-339-7

In this sparkling, hushed story about making spaces for less glamorous feelings, too, a boy understands and respects his sadness enough to create a place for it to peacefully exist. Visualized as a cozy haunt, decked out with flowers and glittering lights, the spot that he constructs for this often pushed-down feeling is both inviting and apart—giving audiences an opportunity to consider where sadness fits, and what it contributes, to their own lives.

MICHELLE ANNE SCHINGLER (September / October 2021)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.