In this creepy, crawly, slimy, and adorable story, Frankenstein is off to the Valentine's Day Bash. At this party filled with every kind of monster, Frankenstein seems to be the only monster who is kind. In a book filled with a delightfully disgusting array of skeletons, ghouls, and beasties in a riotous rainbow of colors, shapes, and sizes, Frankenstein and his fellow partygoers learn a valuable lesson about staying true to yourself while dancing and belching the night away.
