

Belle

Mary Lee Corbett

Phyllis Saroff, Illustrator

Bunker Hill (November 2011)

Softcover $25.00 (56pp)

978-1-59373-084-0

Join a butterfly on a magical tour of art history through the ages. When she is jostled from the Flemish painting in which she's lived for over 300 years, she must find her way back. Another butterfly named Brimstone has suffered a similar fate and they work together, investigating the museum's galleries, flying past and entering masterpieces by Tissot, Picasso, Matisse, and Pollack to eventually find their own still life. Beautifully conceived and executed, this original and engaging book includes Belle's journal, which provides details on each painting the duo encounters. Ages nine to thirteen.

(Winter 2012)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The author of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the author for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.