

Blood Moon

Garry Disher

Soho Press (April 2009)

$24.00 (368pp)

978-1-56947-563-8

Imagine if Ed McBain's 87th Precinct series was set in Australia and you'll get a fair idea of Garry Disher's series featuring Inspector Hal Challis. In Blood Moon (Soho Press, 978-1-56947-563-8), the latest entry which teams Challis with Sergeant Ellen Destry, Disher shows he's every bit as good a writer as McBain's alter ego, Evan Hunter. This is a MYSTERY FOR GROWN-UPS. The crimes at issue are compelling as much for what they reveal about the investigators as they do about the criminals.

DICK CADY (July / August 2009)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.