Jillian Weise identifies as a cyborg. Perhaps that explains her outsized wit, exceptional word skills, and confidence. The author of The Amputee's Guide to Sex and The Book of Goodbyes, her writing on cyborg identity and disability rights has appeared in Granta and The New York Times.

The Early American Hour

*The Puritans often thought about wolves
and thickets full of girls*

*figuring out how
as early as 1645.
You could pretend*

*not to do anything.
You could share
my firewood.*
