

Far Apart, Close in Heart: Being a Family When a Loved One is Incarcerated

Becky Birtha

Maja Kastelic, Illustrator

Albert Whitman & Company (Mar 7, 2017)

Hardcover $16.99 (32pp)

978-0-8075-1275-3

When a parent goes to jail or prison, children are often left with conflicting emotions. In Far Apart, Close in Heart, Becky Birtha explores the fallout with compassion and insight. Maja Kastelic's softly inviting vignettes show Rafael, Atian, and Emily, along with a culturally diverse group of boys and girls, as they share their experiences at school and home, giving children and caretakers useful tools for coping, even when mom or dad are far away.

PALLAS GATES MCCORQUODALE (May/June 2017)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.