

Fly Free!

Roseanne Thong

Boyds Mills Press (October 2020)

$17.95 (32pp)

978-1-59078-550-8

Mai wants to free the sparrows caged outside the temple gates, but she can't afford to pay for their freedom. Instead, she gives a gift to the girl Thu, chanting, "Fly free, fly free, in the sky so blue. When you do a good deed, it will come back to you." Thu goes on to do a good deed for another, and a cycle of good deeds carries readers through the book, beyond Mai's village and back again. The book is set in Vietnam and draws on the Buddhist tradition of freeing creatures for good karma. Thong has done her research, but the book is an effortless read, and the illustrations are disarmingly simple, foregrounding the heart of the story.

(March / April 2010)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.