HERO, WE KNOW

That once, you put your head in an oven.

How you picture clouds to fall asleep.

Why you stole gum once from a 7-11.

That when you were just sixteen, you crept

out of your window, down Maple Street and Vine, into that brown station wagon.

That time you vomited everything you ate

on your date's lap. How we laughed along with your deadpan, your can-can, your antics in the attic. How we boo-hooed to see you slip past our gaze like a gray vapor, arriving safely, deftly, stolen away

from our jingles and laugh tracks on cue,

from our Velcro hearts, our black and blue.
