Nat Jaspar and Carla Torres teach children about different cultures with their gorgeous, exciting book while avoiding the common children's book pitfalls of relying on stereotypes and condescending kids. Jaspar's fun, informative language imbues each fascinating character with a full personality and backstory, and Torres's playful, edgy profiles display these personalities in all their uniqueness. This masterful team introduces children to all the flavors of language, custom, and ambition the world has to offer. Ages five and up.
