Precocious Bella and endearing Harry are on vacation again, this time in Beijing, China, where they toboggan on the Great Wall, explore the Summer Palace and the Forbidden City, practice tai chi, and snack on sweet ears and peking duck. Bella has done her research (and so have Manzione and Lucco), and the material she discusses with her brother pup is both educational and fascinating. These adorable dogs make for wonderful travel companions in this lovely addition to the Bella and Harry series. Ages four and up.
