Half chicken, half pig, Little Joe is a chickapig determined to follow his dreams—just as soon as he figures out how to do so. Gathering courage from tales still talked about far and wide, he imagines brave heroes from days past. His is a follow-your-heart story, alive with humor and wisdom. Consider possibilities with the chickapig family, dignified despite their birdlike feet and round pink noses. You'll find that dreams come in all shapes and sizes.
