Illustrated in colorful, folk art style, this bubbly picture book embraces a whole world's worth of love, with examples drawn from all around us. The rhyming text eschews dressed-up notions of affection, reminding the audience that love doesn't require a show: it exists between people regardless of their outward circumstances, and is a grace that's given freely. Family love and community love are celebrated side by side, and every shade of human is centered in these uplifting pages.
