Onomatopoeic lines and bright bursting colors relay the story of a little beaver who wants to do more than merely chomp wood. She loves the rhythms of the world and cherishes her forest neighbors—but she also dreams in color and yearns to chew stumps into shapes. Her imagination is wide; she just knows she's meant to be an artist. Ebullience ferries this inspiring tale forward, and the revelation of Lulu's beautiful differences is a triumphant moment for all.
