

Meet Einstein

Mariela Kleiner

Viviana Garofoli, Illustrator

Greenleaf Book Group (March 2011)

Hardcover $15.95 (32pp)

978-0-615-38973-8

Light and gravity are the stars of this easy-to-follow take on what it means to be a scientist, as seen through a messily coiffed Albert Einstein character and his faithful dog. Where light comes from and how it's used throughout the day—red tail lights on cars, flashlights in a darkened room—segues into silly anecdotes about kids falling and spilling things (no one escapes gravity) until the book finally asks, at the end: "Isn't that cool? Think about Einstein next time you turn off the lights or watch something fall down to the floor." Cool, indeed. Ages two to five.

(March / April 2011)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.