Evoking the classics with its jaunty, silly rhymes, this story follows a magical, playful menagerie whose members embrace their oddities and unique abilities, and do so with happy results. In addition to its circus-performing members, the family includes an escape artist baby, plant-collecting aunts, and a talented patissier-in-training. Brought to further life via Roald Dahl-esque ink-and-watercolor illustrations, these family members will abracadabra and pli  their ways into young hearts.
