Monty is a blue, wide-eyed donkey who's content with his life on the farm, among other loving animals. But someone left the gate open today, and Monty is tempted to wander. Curious by nature, he follows the examples set by a moose and some geese before realizing that he's not at home among beavers and squirrels. Monty is more than happy when his adventures lead him home. The book's active, bright illustrations celebrate both exploration and being happy where you are.
