This rhyming story of a puppy whose teacup has gone missing, imperiling his morning ritual, follows along as he searches for clues—and instead finds everything else, and everyone else, missing, too! His tummy rumbles, and his worry grows, but there's a happy surprise waiting for the pup at the end of his investigation, including the revelation that his friends love him very much. With throwback illustrations decked with bright details, this is a fun story that's well suited to story time.
