This laugh-out-loud adventure follows curious Murilla Gorilla as she tries to solve the case of the hole in the hammock. Her adorable friendliness and absent-mindedness make her a heroine to cheer for. Join this goofy detective and her pals on their investigations into other mysteries in the African jungle in this series. It's the perfect preparation for inspiring kids to read mystery novels later in life, and to pay attention to clues and details in everyday life. Ages five to eight.
