A little girl has always wanted a dog; finding one transforms her life for the better, though he's not quite like the other dogs in the neighborhood. When her dog disappears, the girl is devastated, until an unexpected new friend—and the return of an old one—reminds her that she is never alone. Soft jewel-toned watercolors are enlivened with spots of bright colors and detailed lines in this tongue-in-cheek picture book that's perfect for animal lovers.
