

My Mom Has X-Ray Vision

Angela Mcallister

Alex T. Smith, Illustrator

Tiger Tales (March 2011)

Hardcover $15.95 (32pp)

978-1-58925-097-0

Addressing that eternal question “Do moms know everything?” this selection’s curious main character, Matthew, believes his can see through walls and perform other heroic feats. How else would she always know he’s jumping on the bed or using her kitchen pots in the yard? As shown in bright, artfully composed drawings, Matthew’s mom does seem to be everywhere at once. Like him, the reader will also wonder if her ordinary hair and clothes are the clever disguises he takes them for—until the satisfying conclusion. Ages three to seven.

(March / April 2011)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.