Experience Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker through the eyes of a young girl attending the ballet in this fresh rendition of the beloved classic. Excitement builds as the girl arrives on a snowy evening in her winter best, her crimson cloak twirling. The sights and sounds of the theater are center stage; musicians, dancers, and a lively audience interact through the onomatopoeic text, and the Mouse King, sugar plum fairy, soldiers, and, of course, the nutcracker dance across the pages.
