On the Road with Mallory is the latest book in a series of twenty-five. In this installment, Mallory is on a vacation to the Grand Canyon and is journaling about her adventures. Much to her annoyance, her cousin Kate has joined her family on this trip. Mallory and Kate must learn to get along if they are going to enjoy their vacation. Amusing illustrations accompany the text, drawn as though Kate is drawing in her journal. The lesson about learning to understand someone else's perspective comes through clearly and will find its mark with children ages 7 to 11.
