Phil Pickle is a wacky, amusing story about a pickle who wants to be an actor. None of the other pickles think that Phil can do it, believing that a pickle can only have one destiny: to end up next to a burger and fries on a plate. Phil, however, is determined to try, and he does not let the naysayers dissuade him. Vibrant and expressive illustrations bring life to the story. The book is intended for children ages four to eight, but is great for anyone who needs a reminder to follow their dreams.
