Young readers will recognize their own frustrations as they accompany charming Sally Simon Simmons in her attempt to build the tallest sandwich in class. Sally's quirky personality and determination shine in this delightful picture book, which introduces the idea of emotional education through sing-song rhymes and characters any kid can relate to. The unusual humor, catchy rhymes, and unique art and layout will make this a "read-it-again!" favorite. Ages two to seven. AIMEE JODOIN (Winter 2014)
