The legend of the “Lady in Blue,” rich in history and mystery, is revived in Sisters in Blue, or Hermanas de azul, a bilingual journey of faith and unity, by Anna M. Nogar and Enrique R. Lamadrid. Earthy colors and Native American designs from illustrator Amy Córdova depict Sor María, a devout seventeenth-century Catholic from northern Spain, as she miraculously shares her faith with Paf Sheuri, a Pueblo woman living a world away in New Mexico.
