Spoken word poetry asks for something quite rare among contemporary poets: a willingness to crawl out of the writing cave to stand on stage and perform. Fearless Blythe Baird creates her written work teeming with sound and rhythm, earning her performances international acclaim and a McKnight Artist Fellowship for Spoken Word.

*COME HOME, STOCKHOLMoh, how humbling it is to know:the body I threw stones atis the same body who isstill determined to writelove letters to me.MATT SUTHERLAND (November / December 2022)
