In this gorgeous story about claiming home where we are loved, Lily's grandma proposes a game to ease the pain of moving: they'll find ten beautiful sights to celebrate along the way. Though at first Lily's vision is obscured by grief, she is soon able to note: a brilliant sunrise. A cawing bird. The earthy smell of mud. Her heart opens as their ride reaches its end, resulting in triumph. Its attentive, bright illustrations help to make this a perfect picture book.
