In this gripping sequel to the award-winning, bestselling The Devil's Intern, 16-year-old Medusa Pallister applies for and receives an internship with the Devil. But it's not all about filing papers and fetching coffee for the most infamous boss in the underworld—Medusa is on a mission to solve a mystery that she is sure only Mitchell Johnson, her enigmatic new coworker, can crack. But when Hell goes into lockdown after the theft of a powerful, apocalyptic-inducing dreamcatcher, Medusa is plunged into an adventure that will lead her down an entirely different path, one that reveals long-held secrets and revelations Medusa could never have imagined. Funny, snarky, and clever, and full of twists and turns, The Devil's Dreamcatcher is sure to appeal to those who love their action delivered with a strong dose of humor. Hosie's voice shines throughout, with a work that more than lives up to the hype generated by her first crowd-pleasing novel.
