Rich in story and moving in message, this tale of two Alex Addlestons who met in kindergarten but are relocated half a world away from each other is an epic fairy tale for modern times. Part love story, part reminder to keep those you care about close to your heart, The Only Alex Addleston in All These Mountains will warm the hearts of children and adults alike. The narrative is loaded with vivid detail, and the illustrations bring depth to small-town American life, African savanna, and the emotive perspective of these two endearing Alexes who could not be kept apart. Ages five and up.
