Reminiscent of the three little pigs, this story of three brothers attempting to survive a blizzard demonstrates the importance of preparation—and of heeding the wisdom of your elders. In Northern Canada, Ajaguq, the youngest brother, sets off to hunt seals but soon finds himself lost and freezing. His older brother rescues him, but the wind soon comes for his shelter as well. The eldest brother finds them and brings them to his iglu, but is it strong enough to weather the storm?
