Determined not to grow bored through the impending winter, Badger ventures to the people's town to find some amusement. She retrieves a kaleidoscope—a “twist-a-roo”—and is eager to show her friends, but they are busy making more pragmatic preparations. Badger's distractions prove potentially perilous as winter sets in around her; a timely visit from friends warms both her burrow and her heart. Bright pinks and yellows jump out from moody teal backdrops that evoke the chill of winter.
