

Tickled Pink: How Friendship Washes the World with Color

Andrée Poulin

Lucile Danis Drouot, Illustrator

Pajama Press (Feb 18, 2020)

Hardcover $18.95 (32pp)

978-1-77278-104-5

A snooty panda and zebra pair refuse to play with Filippo the flamingo because he is “too pink.” It all seems black and white to Filippo who begins to hate his rosy feathers. His story illustrated in shades of grey with bold pink accents, the dispirited bird hears insightful words from his family; with the friendship of a fun-loving lemur, he learns that the world is a much better place because of its beautiful variety of colorations, but especially pink.

PALLAS GATES MCCORQUODALE (March / April 2020)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The publisher of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the publisher for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.