A girl's bravery is rewarded with a psychedelic underwater adventure in this work of magical realism. Tiny lives on a lakeshore with her older sister, whose determination inspires her to answer a question that's been lurking: what's under the water? Tiny musters her courage and jumps; she swims among creatures she's never imagined, and who never imagined her, either. Primary colors pop among the book's busy, bold illustrations, which take Tiny on a wild journey before returning her home again.
