

To Do: A Book of Alphabets and Birthdays

Gertrude Stein

Giselle Potter, Illustrator

Yale University Press (May 2011)

Hardcover $25.00 (128pp)

978-0-300-17097-9

Written in 1940 and now published for the first time with illustrations in a folk-art style, Stein's fanciful journey through the alphabet features a short story in verse about each letter. The author's postmodern approach to language predates that movement by decades: "Ivy was Ivy, she was Ivy by name and Ivy by nature and she was born on the 5th of August." Those who love to be challenged by words should respond avidly to the highly original, repetitive, and sparsely punctuated verse that may be read rapidly for heightened effect. A one-of-a-kind book that will remind grown-ups how joyful it can be to put sentences together. All ages.

(May / June 2011)

Disclosure: This article is not an endorsement, but a review. The author of this book provided free copies of the book to have their book reviewed by a professional reviewer. No fee was paid by the author for this review. Foreword Reviews only recommends books that we love. Foreword Magazine, Inc. is disclosing this in accordance with the Federal Trade Commission's 16 CFR, Part 255.