A singsong tale of adventure, in which a young girl rides out on her little pony, “to see what I can see.” She meets all kinds of Western creatures, including prairie dogs, an armadillo, jackrabbit, roadrunner, coyote, and buffalo. For each, there’s a happy singsong greeting that kids will love to chant. In the end, she returns home to her loving Grandpa. Illustrator Leonhard shows us Western landscapes and animals, and a jaunty rider and pony with a pleasing blend of magic and realism.
