Arthur de Pins has crafted another gorgeous addition to the fabulous Zombillennium series. The secret behind the Zombillennium Horror Theme Park is that all of the staff are actually monsters—vampires, werewolves, demons, zombies—forced into an eternity-long contract working for the devil ... er, the park. But the mysterious head honcho isn't pleased with current park revenue and sends in bloodthirsty Jagger to shake things up.

With clever, witty writing and exquisite, imaginative art, the undead have never seemed more human. De Pins has worked in animation, and it shows in all the best ways. The previous two installments are not to be missed, and the fourth and a forthcoming movie are eagerly anticipated.
